NORTHWEST BATTLE BUDDIES WAS FOUNDED TO SUPPORT OUR COMBAT VETERANS. SINCE 2012, WE HAVE GIFTED VETERANS WITH PROFESSIONALLY-TRAINED SERVICE DOGS.

WHY WE EXIST

After serving in combat, part of a close-knit unit, facing challenges and terrors together, many people find the transition to civilian life difficult and lonely. Traumatic memories follow them home.

Every day in the United States 22 Veterans die from suicide, due in part to PTSD. That's over 8,000 lives lost each year.

OUR MISSION

Northwest Battle Buddies empowers combat Veterans with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) by partnering them with professionally-trained, specifically matched service dogs.

There is no cure for PTSD, but service dogs can reduce PTSD symptoms with life-changing — results. With a canine Battle Buddy by their side, Veterans with PTSD can regain their freedom and independence.

Many of our service dogs are rescued from animal shelters. All our service dogs spend 7+ months in intensive training, then are carefully matched with a Veteran handler for five more weeks of training and bonding, creating the ultimate partnership.

MICHAEL + RIVER

I DRANK DOWN A 24-PACK OF BEER, PULLED MY HIDDEN REMINGTON 870 OUT OF THE ATTIC, PUT DOWN A TARP, GRABBED A CHAIR, PUT THE BARREL IN MY MOUTH, TEARS RUSHING DOWN MY FACE THINKING ABOUT MY WIFE AND FAMILY AND WHAT I WAS ABOUT TO DO TO THEM.

"I HAVE RIVER WHO IS SAVING ME DAILY"

Exactly one year prior to getting River, to the date, I attempted to take my own life. The pressure became too much. The vertigo and headaches from my TBI were excruciating. I felt like a failure, worthless.... Why was I spared over the husbands, fathers and friends I served with that didn't come home? The guilt was too much to handle. I tried all the meds...they did nothing. Drinking became my numbing agent, that only made things so much worse... 3 years no booze now..

The hardest part is 10 years later, I still get calls telling me another army brother has taken his own life. These were some of the toughest men, fathers and sons I've ever had the pleasure to meet. The pressure was too much. My hyper-vigilance made me feel like every rooftop had a sniper and every trash bag on the road was an IED. My innocence was stolen from me at 18 when I had to kill or be killed for the first time.

During my attempt I had everything. I bought my first house, just got married to the love of my life a couple months before all this, makes no sense, I know... I should've been on cloud nine. But my PTSD took over that day. I was having a bad day to start
